

PRACTICE CASE / ID

DATE

SETTING

Describe it so precisely that someone who hasn't seen it could picture it.

WHAT MATTERS MOST

- Onset, evolution and symptoms (itch, pain)
- Exposures and treatments already tried
- Morphology: primary lesion, size, color, border, scale
- Distribution

OFTEN MISSED

- Treatments tried and the response
- Distribution and pattern
- Mucosal, nail and scalp involvement

S SUBJECTIVEChief complaint

HPI Onset, location where it started, evolution, itch/pain, triggers, exposures, treatments tried and response.

History Atopy, prior skin disease, family history.

Medications Including new ones.

O OBJECTIVE

Morphology Primary lesion (macule, papule, plaque, vesicle...), size, color, border, secondary changes (scale, crust).

Distribution Location, pattern, symmetry.

Other Nails, scalp, mucosa.

A ASSESSMENT

Diagnosis With the features supporting it.

Differential

P PLAN

Treatment Agent, where, how often, how long.

Education Skin care, triggers.

Follow-up

For practice. Never enter real patient identifiers.

soapyapp.com